

SILICON VALLEY CHAPTER EVENT

PROGRAM

Jeanette Garretty, Vice President & Senior Private Client Advisor, Wells Fargo Private Client Services

“Will we see Economic Growth in 2004?”

We are pleased to once again have the well-known economist, Jeanette Garretty from Wells Fargo Bank, as our first speaker of the New Year. She is often a commentator on the Silicon Valley economy and the high tech marketplace, Jeanette will analyze the impact of technology on economic structure and consumer behavior, as well as the role of public policy in the changing global environment. Last year, Jeannette was named one of Santa Clara County’s most influential businesswomen, as well as on of the 100 Most Influential Business Women in the Bay Area. You won’t want to miss this event!

JEANETTE A. GARRETTY

*Vice President and Senior Private Client Advisor
Wells Fargo Private Client Services*

Jeanette Garretty recently joined Wells Fargo Private Client Services to assist in the expansion of the wealth management business in the San Francisco Bay Area. With her office in Palo Alto, she continues her work with high net worth individuals, corporate executives and entrepreneurs in Silicon Valley, focussing on their financial and estate planning needs.

Jeanette joins Wells Fargo following two and one-half years as head of City National Bank's business development efforts in the West Bay. Prior to City National, she lead the growth of Bank of America's Private Bank in Silicon Valley, establishing a pioneering Private Banking office on Sand Hill Road in Menlo Park.

Complementing her career in private client services is an equally recognized role as a well-known commentator on the Silicon Valley economy and the high technology marketplace. Previous to assuming the leadership of various private banking initiatives in Silicon Valley, Jeanette was Chief Domestic Economist for Bank of America in San Francisco. Among her special areas of interest has been the analysis of the impact of technology on economic structure and consumer behavior, and the role of public policy in a rapidly changing global environment.

During her more than 25 years in the banking industry, Ms. Garretty has addressed national and regional audiences regarding the economic and financial forecast. She has helped countless companies and individuals with both the strategic analysis of the economic environment and the tactical implementation of business plans appropriate for the marketplace. She served for many years on the economic advisory board for Joint Venture: Silicon Valley and was a director for The Enterprise Network, a high tech incubator. Currently she is a member of the Board of Directors for the National Association of Corporate Directors in Silicon Valley, and a member of the Executive Board of Catholic Charities of Silicon Valley. She is also active with the Grand View League, the fundraising arm of the American Cancer Society in Santa Clara County.

Jeanette graduated from Santa Clara University with a B.S. in Mathematical Economics, and completed her masters and doctoral work in Economics at Stanford University. She continues to serve as an emeritus regent at Santa Clara University, and a board member of SCU's Athletic Department Strategic Initiative Fund. In 2003, she was named one of Santa Clara County's most influential businesswomen, as well as one of the 100 Most Influential Business Women in the Bay Area.
